B. SDSU-IV Associated Students Coordinator/Career Services Melyssa Gonzalez
   1. Announced eighty-six (86) attendees at the Dia de Los Muertos Event (50 students, 20 faculty/staff, and 16 community members). Thanked everyone who made this event possible. Also, I commended the Aztecs Dance Club for their outstanding performance.
   2. Reminded them that taking care of our Student Union Building is very important. If they see any issues with locking mechanisms and such, they should inform her immediately.
   3. Inquired about the chaperone for the November 19th Aztec Nights event.
   4. Asked those who expressed interest in attending the End of the Year Celebration at University House if they are willing to either drive their vehicle and get gas reimbursement or if they’d want A.S. to rent cars and have two of them drive.
   5. Reminded everyone campus is closed on Thursday, November 11 due to Veterans Day. Therefore, office hours do not need to be made up for this day. Informed them she would be off on Friday, November 12, and will return on Monday.

C. A.S. President Carlos A. Fitch
   1. Reminded the council to participate in the brainstorming of the Welcome Back 2022. Stated that so far, only V.P.U.A. Horton-Alvarado and himself participated in the shared document. Said that it has been weeks of repeating that participation is needed, and no one has tried to open the document.
   2. Reminding everyone that discipline will begin to be enforced as never before. Ask the members of Associated Students to abide by the rules.
3. Mentioned to everyone that the exit door is broken and therefore, no one can enter or exit through that door until it is fixed.
4. Mentioned that he reviewed the documents of the 2009 Referendum and is working on setting up a meeting with San Diego to get advice on the new referendum that is being planned.
5. Stated that later in the meeting, he will be talking about a referendum task force to make sure that all voices are heard accurately.
6. Mentioned that the state has already hired janitorial/facilities student assistants and is expecting approval to have A.S. hiring janitorial student assistants. Attachment of job posting was shown in the meeting and is attached to these minutes as Attachment 1.
7. Mentioned that there was a problem with the work order for the main entrance kitchen. Noted that he is working with Director of Business Services Madero to see the feasibility of partially completing the kitchen project from November 19th through December 26th. Announced to the council that if agreed on the closure of the building, there will be a vote next week on closing the facility for the work to be done.
8. Shared with the council the main ideas he recovered from the Spring Alternative Consultation that the University is pursuing. Attachment of notes in these minutes, labeled as Attachment 2.
9. Mentioned that he will be attending the Homecoming Court Dinner with Senator and Homecoming Court member Lora-Acosta, alongside Senators Diaz and Osuna. Said that Senator Lora-Acosta was interviewed upon her historical role and congratulated her.
10. Mentioned that he had not received any communication from the Office of the Provost at the beginning of the Dean's Search Committee until recently. The meeting was scheduled for November 19, 2021.
11. Announced to the council that A.S. will no longer serve as the liaison between E.C.R.T. and students on hours outside of office hours (9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.) as there is a supposed lack of need. Mentioned that as part of this discussion, he requested far more promotion of the services as many of the students are not aware of the care packages that E.C.R.T. can grant. Mentioned that A.S. will always have its doors open to collaboration and ensure that these services are fully accessible to students.
12. Mentioned to the council the constant problems and lack of efficiency of the shuttle service. Read a student letter out loud who wrote about an issue with the shuttle and can be found in these minutes as Attachment 3. Mentioned that he kept constant communication with the student until 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday 3rd, 2021. He highlighted many issues that this experience brought up and said to the council that the university needs to put programs and services of quality, not pilots. Mentioned that it is pretty uncomfortable to be acting as the university’s authority or M.P.P. in charge whenever there are issues on campus, and it is outside working hours. He mentioned that sometimes he is in class and needs to step out due to problems since no other figure of authority is in campus after regular business hours, or approximately 5:00 p.m. He mentioned that there needs to be an M.P.P. on campus until 9:00 p.m. from Monday to Friday. It is not acceptable only to have the library and the Associated Students office open after 5:00 p.m. There is a dire need to have the appropriate personnel on campus if an emergency arises after hours. Finally, he thanked V.P.U.A. Horton-Alvarado for offering to pick up the student. As a result, President Fitch inquired to President De la Torre's Chief of Staff, Brittany Santos-Derieg, to get this issue to the President's attention and reconvene the committee/task force on the shuttle.

13. He thanked Educational Events Chair Gutierrez for a beautiful and memorable event as the "Recordandolos: Dia de Los Muertos" event. Finally, he showed the council two letters/emails from faculty who thanked them for contributing to the event. Attachment 4 with the thank you letters can be found in these minutes.

14. Raised the question to the administration on the attempt to be equal with San Diego campus. Shared that multiple systematic issues discourage students and prevent them from feeling accepted as a part of the S.D.S.U. community. He mentioned that the problems with the shuttle are concerning, he noted that the lack of speedy responses from San Diego's peers is disconcerting. Their reaction and justifications on the differentiation of services are alarming, and the inclusion of newer services seems to be impromptu due to the non-accommodated and unadjusted systems. Finally, he mentioned that there is a promotion of taking courses on the Mesa campus, but there is no straightforward process, as students are not autonomous to add them. He included a student testimony and can be found in these minutes in Attachment 5.

D. A.S. Executive Vice President John Moreno Jr.
   1. Talked about student feedback.
   2. Discussed furniture and additional tables needed in the Student Union Building for students to do their homework.
   3. Discussed the golf cart bids. A motion will be added to next week's agenda.

E. A.S. Vice President of Finance Erika D. Gutierrez-Guler
   1. No Report.

F. A.S. Vice President of University Affairs Jazmyn Horton-Alvarado
   1. Stated there is still no word from the Chairs of the Strategic Committees, and communication with Kole has been insufficient. I will be taking the next step in contacting AVP Andrea Dooley to fix this situation.
   2. Stated the old grill needs to be moved this week as it is no longer ours. If it is not moved, I'll contact Neighborhood House again so they can come to pick it up.
   3. Shared some storage shed options with Melyssa Gonzalez, A.S. Coordinator, who will be speaking with Markco King, Assistant Director of Facilities Services and Projects.

G. SDSU-IV Dean/Chief Administrative Officer, Mark R. Wheeler
   1. Informed them about events coming up this weekend and encouraged everyone to advertise and attend.
   2. Informed them about his meeting with Carmen Durazo this morning.

- It is a process that they are moving forward
- Place where they want to have the conversation with the campus

C. Little
- Alternative consultations are subject to discussion and during Fall there will be a preparation of materials, a pamphlet of information that provides an objective of the proposal, the energy is spent in CFAC to prepare those materials and presentations.
- Pamphlet is a pro and con statement, as well as an objective review of the proposal
- Daily Aztec publication to be submitted to CFAC as stated in the rules
- Pampleth is published and announce a series of forums
- 30 to 40 forums to encourage mass participation
- Invite RSOs to host those forums looking for reach of students
- Once forums conclude, there is a presentation reviewed and then a feedback form that created students a choice to support or not the fee, as well as the written comments form
- CFAC will recommend either on whether or not they support the fee
- President decides on approval or not based on CFAC support or not of the fee
- Chancellor's office for final approval of the fee
- Make sure that CFAC is okay with the proposal and then proceed
  - Question from attendee: does CFAC input go to the chancellor?
    - Answer: The Univ creates a package of the process and is presented to the chancellor
  - Question from attendee: Participation in IV will be mirrored to SD campus?
- Answer: They will host a forum during the 3 weeks period and provide the feedback opportunity
  - Zoom forums will be available too

Jerry:
- As we begin to frame the opportunity for investment, technology is centered for students and will impact our students directly
- Complexity of students in need of using tech
- Student needs that Univ is not able to afford
- What is encompassed with student tech? 24/7 support for learning management, students needed to get services 24 hours and want to continue for more time—now, it is funded by the HERFF
- Programs and softwares that help students on their courses, example given of a program of equations
- Wireless infrastructure only in the indoor environment, there is the need to increase outdoor wireless infrastructure
- Give the opportunity to give infrastructure to give research
- Robust opportunity to invest in tools for smart charging
- Not sustainable to have only outlets
- No infrastructure on recycle paper and smarter printer opportunities
- Student focused investments
- They know that students want these types of investments
- If not charging all students, then there will be an equity problem
- Co-invest to make all things available for students
- Climate action plan not implemented per state and auxiliaries
- State has no funds to do photovoltaics, led changes, new buildings on LEAD Silver to Gold,
- Sustainability needs to be improved
- Academic research and practitioners need to be on sync
- Move away from gas carbon
- Heat and steam plus electricity is difficult to replicate
- Transportation - subsidize the transportation
- Shuttle needs to be improved
- Recap of dollars already invested

Ashley:
- Is there a plan to survey the student body before the alternative consultation?
- Answer: they see demand of that right now and have evidence that investments are needed, basic needs assessment was made last year and the method for engage student body from last year was a student experience on tech that lead to the proposal to be formed on both sides of IT and Sustainability
- Has been made by student voices by engagement on strategic activities for sustainability, the climate action plan BUT no survey has been conducted

Ashley:
- Is there room for additional input?
- Any financial projection given?
  - It is being worked right now- C. Little

Presenter 2 (name missing):

Yesterday, November 3, 2021, I was set to take the shuttle for a roundtrip from the IV Campus to San Diego and then back to the IV Campus in the evening. To start from the very beginning, on the morning of November 3rd I arrived at the pickup/dropoff point of the IV Campus at 8:30am. When I arrived, I did not see the shuttle which I thought was a little strange because it is usually already there by the time I arrive. The shuttle ended up arriving around 8:45am, which is the time that we are usually leaving Calexico but since it arrived a little late we did not end up leaving the IV Campus til around 9:00-9:05am. I noticed that it was a different bus this time (the bus we had previously been taking was black, but this one was white), so I did ask the driver if it was the shuttle for San Diego just to confirm that I was taking the correct shuttle. Once I boarded the shuttle, another student who had also taken it the previous day (Nov. 2) had mentioned to me that the shuttle was about an hour late picking them up but that they had eventually received a phone call notifying them that the shuttle was running late. Fast forward to later in the day, at about 6:15pm I leave the library to start heading for the pickup/dropoff point on Hardy Ave and arrive there at about 6:25pm. At 6:45pm I started worrying a bit because the shuttle still had not arrived and by that time we were already supposed to be leaving to head back to Calexico. It’s quite concerning because there is no phone number that you are able to call in case you find yourself in a situation like this. There is only an email provided once you submit a google form for the shuttle, so I had to fill out a new google form to make a reservation for the next week in order to even get the email address. At 7:02pm I sent an email to Susana Lopez asking if she had any information about the shuttle running late but I did not receive an email back until 9:06pm. At 7:45, I called my mom to notify her that the shuttle had never arrived and that I was still in San Diego, and she was actually the one who was able to get in contact with somebody. Eventually I received a call from Carlos Fitch who put me in contact with Dr. Villegas. From there, we were all trying to figure out how this could have happened and wondering where the bus driver was at. I was later told in a phone call that the driver claimed he waited until 6:48pm but that no one was there. I find this hard to believe considering that I had been waiting at the pickup/dropoff point since 6:25pm and it’s pretty impossible to not see the only big bus that waits in the cul de sac on Hardy Ave. I also find it strange that the driver never called me to ask if I would be making the shuttle departure time if they supposedly waited until 6:48pm. Previously, when it looked like a student was not going to make it to the shuttle departure time, the driver called to inquire about their whereabouts so I'm not sure why they didn't take that same course of action yesterday. This wasn't my first time taking the shuttle so I'm already familiar with what to do, where to go, and what time it arrives/departs. This is why I'm at a complete loss at how the situation yesterday could have happened. I do want to thank Carlos Fitch and Dr. Villegas who expressed concern for my safety and wellbeing during this situation. Dr. Villegas did offer that I could take the shuttle back to the IV Campus in the morning but I turned this down as I do not trust the shuttle anymore. He also expressed that I could take an Uber back to the Imperial Valley in the morning which would be paid for, but I declined this as well because my mom drove to San Diego that same night to pick me up from my friend's house. Dr. Villegas also told me that he would try to see if he could find a dorm for me to stay in for the night, but I had no idea how long that process was going to take. At that point, I was already quite distraught with the situation, and my friend had already offered to pick me up so that I could stay at her place until my mom arrived, so I told Dr. Villegas that the dorm wouldn't be necessary. I do appreciate Dr. Villegas trying to come up with solutions but I wish that there had been a better system in place for this shuttle program. I understand that it is a pilot program and it has only been operating for the past month but at the bare minimum there should at least be a phone number students can call so that they are not left in limbo. Especially for students who do take the shuttle in the evening, in which many offices are already closed by that time so it's difficult to get in contact with anybody. This was an awful and distressing experience and I will no longer be taking the shuttle. It's quite disappointing because I saw this shuttle program as an amazing opportunity for students who commute between San Diego and the Imperial Valley and it's very unfortunate that this so happened to be my experience.

Saludos faculty,

I want to extend the invitation of Associated Students of Imperial Valley, in collaboration with SDSU-IV, to our “Recordándolos” Dia De Los Muertos Event that will be held on Tuesday, November 2nd, from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at the Rodney Auditorium patio.

We will be interactive games that campus student organizations will host and tamales.

During the event, the Chicanx Sin Fronteras Student Organization will provide cempasuchil flowers for students who would like to dedicate and write the name of their loved one. Associated Students’ altar will be open to students, staff and faculty to place their flowers and dedications. We will also have a place for students to place their "Cartas al Cielo" to their loved ones. In this event, Chicanx Sin Fronteras will present saxophone performances and Aztecs Dance Club will perform a lyrical-contemporary dance dedicated to the people we lost during the COVID-19 pandemic. As well, the library will be open and exhibiting the altares comunitarios made by art students. Performances are scheduled to begin around 6:30 p.m.

Remember, food (vegan and vegetarian options will be offered as well) and refreshments are for SDSU-IV students, faculty, and staff.
Please encourage your students to participate! Feel free to forward this email communication to students and affiliate faculty/staff.

¡Espero verlos ahí, celebrando nuestras raíces, cultura y la vida y muerte de nuestros seres queridos!

Hello, good evening.

I want to give you some feedback in case you are not aware that this system/plan is not functioning effectively. I can not add classes to "My Plan" or register for SDSU classes either. As soon as I log in, I cannot even view or access any SDSU classes.

Also, counselors aren't available soon either. The soonest appointments available are two weeks in the future, in which case the classes I want will most likely be full already.

My registration is tomorrow, so in my case, I might have to forget about taking any classes in San Diego, and I was looking forward to it.

Are there any plans to improve this registration system for Calexico students to add SDSU courses to our own schedule? I can see not many students signing up for classes in SDSU or using the shuttle because the registration website is not user-friendly and blocks us from accessing the SDSU schedule of classes once we log in.

Any advice you can provide would be greatly appreciated.
We are excited to announce you can now register for courses at SDSU San Diego main campus!! You can also access extensive resources that are offered at SDSU main campus. See flyer below for more details.

Don't forget we offer free shuttle service. SDSU Imperial Valley to SDSU San Diego Shuttle will operate Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, offering a morning and evening service.
